PRESS RELEASE

Moving Geometry: Color, Contrast, Shape

October 11 – January 11, 2017

RCSFA's next exhibition for the Lobby Gallery at 1251 Avenue of the Americas will open October 11, 2017 and continue through January 11, 2018. The show, titled Moving Geometry: Color, Contrast, Shape features recent work by the artists, Gabriele Evertz, Bill Hall, Melissa Staiger, and Yasu Shibata all of whom rely on color and shape, proportion and scale to create beauty.

This exhibition is presented in partnership with Mitsui Fudosan America, Hines, and RCSFA an art consulting firm that provides exhibition and art advisory services to corporations, museums and historic collections. The gallery at 1251 AoA is located in the lobby of 1251 Avenue of the Americas, 49th & 6th Avenue. The gallery is open to the public M-F: 7 a.m.-7 p.m.
