

RCS Fine Art

PRESS RELEASE

Summer Exhibition

July 7, 2017 – October 7, 2017

RCSFA's Summer Exhibition at the Lobby Gallery at 1251 Avenue of the Americas presents an eclectic and charming selection of paintings and photographs that capture summer's free spirit. On view until October 7, the travel paintings by Yuka Imata, Charles Basman's Prospect Park painting, Naomi Chung's meditative garden-scapes, and Elizabeth Panzer and Karl Von Holzhauser's experimental photography are a visual delight.

This exhibition is presented in partnership with Mitsui Fudosan America, Hines, and RCSFA an art consulting firm that provides exhibition and art advisory services to corporations, museums and historic collections. The gallery at 1251 AoA is located in the lobby of 1251 Avenue of the Americas, 49th & 6th Avenue. The gallery is open to the public M-F: 7 a.m.-7 p.m.

For additional images contact RCSFA, www.rcsfineart.com, 646-269-0438, @RCSFA